ally

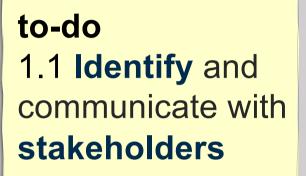

~ an add-on for Blackboard VLE.

Blackboard Ally improves the experience for all users by providing alternative document formats.

Blackboard Ally provides feedback to staff so that accessibility can continually improve.

Our to-do list

- 1. Who:
 - Identify and communicate with stakeholders
 - Win over hearts and minds
- 2. What and When: Plan for a phased roll out of Blackboard Ally
- 3. Where and How:
 - Deliver training completely online
 - Self-service training and documentation

Always start here...

Know thy service users to-do 1.2 Identify and communicate with stakeholders

ortunity to

ROJECT PLANNI

An opportunity to build and strengthen internal collaborations to-do 1.3 Win over hearts and minds

Key points

Minimise tracking/auditing due to perception as surveillance.

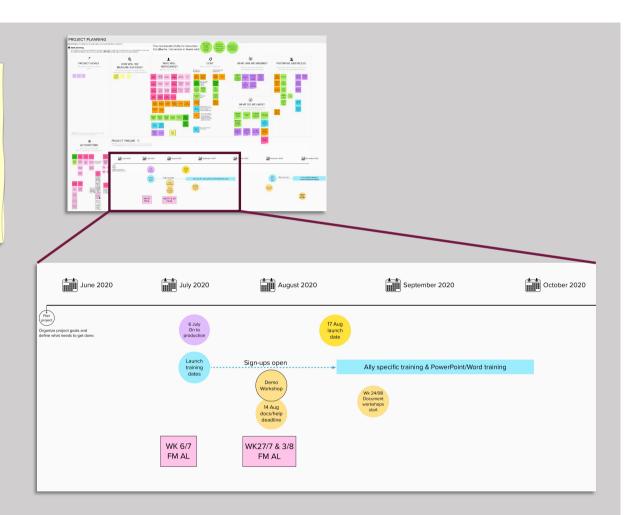

Create a core message.

Core Message –

Three Things you Need to know about Ally

- 1. Ally saves time by automatically creating alternative document formats
- 2. Ally supports the access needs of all students
- 3. Ally provides feedback which is only visible to instructors to help improve the accessibility of content in My Studies to-do2. Plan for a phasedroll out ofBlackboard Ally

Two phases were planned with the ethos of improvement first, statistics later

online

~ the challenge of working during a pandemic even when you are techies

to-do 3.1 Deliver training completely online

Via MS Teams but using the VLE with task scenarios

With companion session: 'Creating Accessible Digital Documents'

to-do 3.2 Self-service training and documentation

Two pronged approach with harmonisation across the eLearning Team and the IS Workshops Training Team.

- In CPD module for staff
- In Emergency Teaching Blog
- Use of gov.uk digital standards (GDS)
- Use of S.C.U.L.P.T. acronym
- Guidance for Libraries and Service Desk
- Guidance for students

Summary – Top 5 tips that work

- 1. Focus on tool-based tasks and values to stay concise
- 2. Craft consistent and simple messages
- 3. Opportunities to collaborate are chances to remind and refine
- 4. Celebrate and cherish people who attend workshops/events
- 5. Iterate, iterate, iterate
